WHERE IS THE GOLD AND SILVER?—A good many people are very much alarmed about the finances of the country, and fear that because they do not see gold and silver in daily circulation as they used to, it has all gone out of the country. Such people would be surprised if they could look into a few of the private hoards to say nothing of the public receptacles of the country, and see the nice little sums laid by against a time of need, all of which will come into circulation again in an amazingly short space of time, as soon as financial matters become more settled.

AN ENGLISH MILLIONAIRE—A London correspondent of the Chicago Journal writes: "I mentioned not long ago the death of the millionaire Gurney. His will has just been made public. I think I wrote you that it cost $75,000 to prove it. His personal property, it appears, is valued at £1,100,000 (say $5,500,000), and his real estate was enormous. Altogether he left property to the amount of at least twenty, and I have seen it stated as high as seventy five, millions of dollars. I have gone carefully over the charitable bequests in his will, and they amount to exactly the sum of five thousand two hundred pounds, or, about twenty five thousand dollars."

The Charleston Mercury of the 13th has a strong article against a Richmond proposition to yield slavery for independence. The Mercury says "it is not at this late day, after the loss of 30,000 of her best and bravest men in battle, by the State of South Carolina in behalf of the institution of slavery, that she will suffer it to be bartered away."

By orders from the U. S. War Department the territory of Arizona is reannexed to the Department of the Pacific, under the command of Major General McDowell—head quarters at San Francisco, California. General Sherman's department now includes North Carolina; and the Department of the Ohio and the Cumberland are consolidated, embracing such parts of Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia as may be occupied by troops under command of General Thomas.

S. B. Davis, who was identified at Newark, Ohio, some days since as keeper of the Andersonville (Georgia) military prison, and who confessed on his arrest as being a bearer of dispatches from Richmond to Canada, has been sentenced to be hung at Johnson's Island, on the 17th of February.

The sexton of Henry Ward Beecher's Church, Brooklyn, New York, receives a salary of $2,500 per year. The organist is said to receive more than the sexton.

Spiritualism is becoming so popular in Paris that it is proposed to change the name of the Paris Academy of Science, to Academy of Seances.

The Richmond Enquirer of Saturday says that Mosby's wound is nearly well, and that he will be in the saddle in a day or two.
